The administration deserves credit for closing the mails to the missing letter frauds and guessing contests.

The Washington Post thinks that Colonel Jack Chinn could carve a name for himself in the Congressional Record.

No congressman is considered truly great until he has suggested a plan to congress to reform the monetary system.

A St. Louis thief who stole a pair of gaudy hose wore them into court. The judge heard them and ordered the hose turned on him.

Out in Colorado a man wants a divorce because his wife has cold feet. Some men expect to get a stove along with a woman's heart.

One of the rural editors says that if the delinquents don't pay up his Christmas will be Santa Clausless, turkeyless and firecrackerless.

The Thorn murder trial in New York developed a new way to capture a woman's heart. Mrs. Mack admitted that she never loved Thorn until he choked her. The murderer had a peculiar Mack of winning a woman.

Relics of Bygone Days.

THE NEWS has been shown two interesting relics in the shape of money used in bygone days. One piece was a $7 Continental bill, issued in 1777, promising to pay seven Spanish mill dollars. It was given by Matt Scott, of Lexington, to W. T. Ingels, who gave it to J. S. Vimont, of Millersburg. The other relic was a $3 bank note issued Dec. 30, 1809, by the Hinkston Exporting Co., (of Millersburg) to John S. Vimont. The note, on which was engraved a saw mill, was signed by James McClelland, President, and Robt. E. Miller, cashier, (son of John Miller, founder of Millersburg), and bore the number 1316. Robt. E. Miller was the grand father of Horace Miller, of this city, and was a relative of Mrs. W. M. Parnell, A. T. Forsyth, Misses Nannie and Annie Miller, and also of the editors and owners of THE NEWS. The relics are owned by Mrs. Sue Sandusky, of Millersburg. The bank was in the house now occupied by Martin Layson, and during high waters the company shipped lumber and farm products down Hinkston to Licking, the Ohio and Mississippi, to New Orleans.

THE INTERRUPTED FEAST.

[Walter Champ in Up To Date.]

CHAPTER II.

All Condon was agog with anticipated pleasure. The Johnsing home was ablaze with light. The event of the evening was a dinner given in honor of Araminta Snowball Johnsing, and her engagement to Garfield Jackson was announced when the wine was served.

The guests smiled with unfeigned delight, and the toast-master cleared his throat.

CHAPTER III.

Glowing with pleasure, Jeff Washington arose. "I wish to offer a toast," said he, "to de lubly Miss Johnsing, who is about to forsake de hospital roof of her parental ancestor to become de wife of Mistah Garfield Jackson. May she nevah have cause to ignore her act, and may her pathway through life be strewn wid wathmillions."

"May de dashing Miss Johnsing," remarked Noah Bedinger, "find married life one grand, sweet festibule."

"I hope dat de happy gentleman who hath been lucky in playing politly and thohtyety, lucky at craph and puthing puthums," lisped Sam Simms, "may be lucky in domestic felicity."

"May their lives be as joyous as a circus day," solemnly remarked Dragoon Enoch Jones.

The good humor was infectious, and joy reigned supreme.

CHAPTER III.

Through a window was thrust an excited woolly head.

It belonged to little Raetus Johnsing, who had been excluded from the post-nuptial feast.

"Say, pap," he exclaimed, "dere's a big, fat possum treed down heah close to de house. Come an' let's git 'im."

Sixty seconds have elapsed. The Johnsing home is still ablaze with light. The house is like unto a deserted banquet hall.

The Latest Literary Club.

PARIS has the reputation of being a Club town, and the craze extends even to the little ones from seven to eleven years of age, there being quite an interesting Literary Club comprised of little women and men between those ages. They meet Friday afternoon, fortnightly, and the exercises consist of music, recitations, and readings. The meetings are conducted with ease and dignity, and there is never any shirking of duties assigned. The members of this club are Misses Dorothy Talbott, Ethel Thomas, Edith Myall, Allene Power, Edna Talbott and Edna Hinton, and Masters Oscar Hinton, Robert Talbott, Hanson Thomas and Hugh Ferguson. We shall expect to hear of a Baby Club next.

"Tariff" does not affect our goods as they were bought and imported before the duty was put on them.

Modern Treatment of Consumption

The latest work on the treatment of diseases, written by forty eminent American physicians, says: "Cod-liver oil has done more for the consumptive than all other remedies put together." It also says: "The hypophosphites of lime and soda are regarded by many English observers as specifics for consumption."

Miss Bradley Accepts.

Washington Dec. 7.—The one-sided controversy raised by Miss Harriet Bainbridge Richardson over her claim to the honor of christening the battleship Kentucky, was settled to-day in a note received by Secretary Long from Miss Christine Bradley, the 18-year-old daughter of the governor of Kentucky, accepting Mr. Long's invitation to act as sponsor for the vessel. Miss Bradley's note is just what one would expect from the dignified and sensible young woman she has shown herself to be. It was written on dainty blue paper stamped with her monogram in gold. The note follows:

"Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy, Washington—My Dear Sir: Kentucky, 'the firstborn of the Union,' is justly proud of the distinction conferred in giving her name to the magnificent battleship soon to be launched at Newport News. It may not be inappropriate or vain to say that the valiant record made by her sons on land and sea—titles her to the compliment. Kindly accept my sincere thanks for the honor with which you have clothed an unpretentious but ardent Kentucky girl, who loves her state second only to her country. It will give me much pleasure to assist in the ceremonies of the occasion, which should serve, if possible, to bind the sympathies of every citizen of Kentucky closely to the nation. I have the honor to be yours respectfully,

"CHRISTINE BRADLEY,
Washington College, December 6."

Miss Bradley's acceptance ends the official concern with the christening of the Kentucky.

THE INFLUENCE of the Mother shapes the course of unborn generations—goes sounding through all the ages and enters the confines of Eternity. With what care, therefore, should the Expectant Mother be guarded, and how great the effort be to ward off danger and make her life joyous and happy.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

allays all Nervousness, relieves the Headache Cramps, and Nausea, and so fully prepares the system that Childbirth is made easy and the time of recovery shortened—many say "stronger after than before confinement." It insures safety to life of both mother and child. All who have used "Mother's Friend" say they will never be without it again. No other remedy robs confinement of its pain.

"A customer whose wife used 'Mother's Friend,' says that if she had to go through the ordeal again, and there were but four bottles to be obtained, and the cost was $100.00 per bottle, she would have them." GEO. LATON, Dayton, Ohio.

Sent by Mail, on receipt of price, $1.00 PER BOTTLE. Book to "EXPECTANT MOTHERS" mailed free upon application, containing valuable information and voluntary testimonials. THE BRADFIELD REGULATOR CO., ATLANTA, GA. SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

MRS. LAURA WEISHAUF.

Of Murry, Ind., Recommends Wright's Celery Capsules.

Murry, Ind., Sept. 17, 1896.

THE WRIGHT MEDICAL CO., Columbus, Ohio.

DEAR SIRS:—Last spring I purchased a box of Wright's Celery Capsules from L. C. Davenport, druggist, Bluffton, Ind., and used them for stomach trouble with which I had been afflicted for more than 15 years. Since taking your Capsules I have lost all trace of pain and my stomach is entirely well. I can eat anything and can truthfully say that I have not felt better in years.

Yours Respectfully,

MRS. LAURA WEISHAUF.

Chronic Dyspepsia Cured.

AFTER suffering for nearly thirty years from dyspepsia, Mrs. H. E. Dugdale, wife of a prominent business man of Warsaw, N. Y., writes: "For 28 years, I was a constant sufferer from dyspepsia and a weak stomach. The lightest food produced distress, causing severe pain and the formation of gas. No matter how careful of my diet I suffered agonizing pain after eating. I was treated by many physicians and tried numerous remedies without permanent help. Two years ago I began taking Dr. Miles' Nerve and Liver Pills and Nerveine. Within a week I commenced improving, and persisting in the treatment I was soon able to eat what I liked, with no evil effects. I keep them at hand and a single dose dispels any old symptoms."

Dr. Miles' Remedies are sold by all druggists under a positive guarantee, first bottle benefits or money refunded. Book on diseases of the heart and nerves free. Address, DR. MILES MEDICAL CO., Elkhart, Ind.
